

Cincinnati, O. U.S.A. Feb. 5-02.

Mr. Justice Clark,

Hobart, Tasmania.

My dear Mr. Clark:

I am in receipt of your letter and beg to say that the price of the medicines is $10.00. I am sending you to-day one-half treatment for the $5.00 which you have sent me. I hope Mrs. Clark will be faithful in the use of the remedies and adhere strictly to the directions so that there may be no delay in the cure.

Yours truly

Dr. John P. Haig
