

Colonial Secretary Office
4th September, 1863.

Sir,

In reply to your note of the 2nd instant respecting the grant in aid to the Public Library at Glamorgan, I have to inform you that the delay in settling the claim is not attributable to this Office, inasmuch as the Catalogue was not received until Tuesday last, without which the papers were not complete.

I now enclose for your signature an account for £15 being at the rate of £30 per annum (the scale of 1862) for the half year ending 30 June last, and upon its return a cheque will be forwarded to you.

I have the honor to be,

G. F. Storey Esq
Glamorgan.

Sir,
your obedient servant,
B. Havershill

Colonial Secretary's Office, 4th August 1864.

Sir,

In reply to your application for the grant in aid of the Glamorgan Public Library, I am directed to inform you that, Parliament not having voted any money for the support of such Institutions in the County Districts, it cannot be entertained.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your very obedient servant,
W. H. H. H.

J. F. Story, Esquire
Swansea.
