Dear Mr. Williams

I hear you are about to leave Hobart, so before you go, please allow me to thank you for all you have done for my Aunt.

Accept my most sincere thanks for your unfailing kindness to her ever

Since you have been her Solicitor. You have indeed proved yourself a truly kind & patient friend to her. I know it has been a very thankless business but blessings will surely rest on those who are really kind to their fellow-creatures.
So it true you are going away for good? I suppose there is plenty of business to be done now on the West Coast. I am going away to work myself, I am glad to say, & will do all I can for my Aunt, so she might to be quite comfortable.

I hope you will have lots of good luck, for you fully deserve it.
With best wishes that every happiness may be yours now & always Believe me ever your sincere friend

Ada Procter.
