

London 6 Nov. 1822

My dear Sir

I am desired by the Rev G Collison of Hackney, one of our Directors, to introduce to you a gentleman of his acquaintance, a Mr Leake, with Mrs Leake, who are going to settle in Van Dieman's Land. I understand that they resided at Hamburgh, & is reported to me to have been an active supporter of the Kingdom of Christ in that city. I have every reason to believe that he is a gentleman deserving of your friendly notice & assistance.

With every good wish for your personal, domestic public happiness

I am Yours affectionately

Geo Burder
