

C4/C50

Saturday morning

My dear Padre.

You can form no idea of how delighted I am with your speech last night. They will be able to make light of you no more. Whether on the present occasion you succeed or not matters very little, from a personal point of view, for you have taken a position in the very front rank of Tasmania's public men, and what you will I know value most, you have at the same time quondred the cause you have at heart a great service, a service of feel convinced that will prove lasting. If the East-Hobart Electors, are only equal to the issue, and value sterling characters as they should, we will have in Parliament, at last a Real Liberal, which is not the case at present with perhaps one exception.

The Mercury Deserve some Credit for the fair manner in which they have reported ^{you}, and I think you would so well to acknowledge the services of the "Gentlemen of the Press" at your meeting on Monday. together with the support the News has given to your candidature.

Ever yours
Edw D Dobler

Edward D. Dobbie

C4/C50

The influence of Clark's Teaching on Dobbie, who thought he was a true liberal.

Government of Tasmania

Saturday Morning

My dear Padre

You can form no idea of how delighted I am with your speech last night. They will be able to make light of you no more.

Whether on the present occasion you succeed or not matters very little from a personal point of view, for you have taken a position in the very front-rank of Tasmania's public men, and what you will I know value most, you have at the same time rendered the cause you have at heart a real service, a service I feel convinced that will prove lasting. If the East Hobart electors, are only equal to the issue, and value sterling characters as they should, we will have in Parliament, at last a REAL Liberal, which is not the case at present with perhaps one exception.

The Mercury deserves some credit for the fair manner in which they have reported, and I think you would do well to acknowledge the services of the "gentlemen of the Press" at your meeting on Monday together with the support the News has given to your candidature.

Ever Yours

Edward D. Dobbie