

c4/c.27

EUSTACE CONWAY,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW,
11 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

Jan. 12 1903

My dear Mr. Clark,

Your kindly present was duly received and I shall take the greatest interest in reading it. It is an unknown subject to most of us.

I should have acknowledged it earlier, but my father did ~~not~~ know your address in Washington & was of opinion I had better write to you at your home.

With best regards from my wife & myself,

Yours truly,
Eustace Conway