A. Inglis Clark Esq
Solicitor
Robart

48 Temple Court, Melbourne,

23 Nov. 1885

My dear Andrew,

I was delighted to receive your telegram announcing the result of your action v the Corporation - & so of course was I. G. W. - Don't forget to send me a newspaper containing reports of trial -

I have been extremely busy in court all the week or I wd have written to you before this. As soon as I get a little leisure I will write a long letter.

If possible I will send a copy of the address of Justice Hall by this mail.

Up to time of writing I have not been able to see Coburn's love but hope to put something in a P. S.

Thanks for the photos.
The view I allude to is not amongst them so I suppose it is not obtainable. When writing next please send me a copy of the one you of Lindisfern Bay you sent to Mattie & let me know what I owe you on that A/c - I suppose I cannot change some of those you sent I am going to write my application for admission on 1st prox: but I suppose I shall be as unsuccessful in that as in Everything else -

My next post I will send you Auto Sermon of the Rev. C. S. ~~Smith~~
I send you a "programme" of one of his services wh. may interest you. It contains a fine hymn I write in great haste so hope you'll excuse brevity &c.

With love to Mr. Clark & the children Believe me Ever affectionately yours
P. J.

Just seen Coburn's Solr - show him Coburn's letter - He is to see C & advise him to pay - Will write next mail
