

Albert Bushnell Hart,
Harvard University,
Cambridge, Massachusetts.

15 Appian Way.

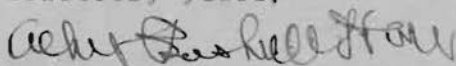

April 14, 1900.

My dear Sir:

The Debates and Journals of the Australian Convention duly arrived in time to be of much service to me and to a class in federal government. I have turned them over to the Harvard College Library who will send you due acknowledgment.

The friends of good government throughout the world are rejoiced at the final accomplishment of your long task.

Sincerely yours,

Judge A. Inglis Clark.

Albert Bushnell Hart,
Harvard University,
Cambridge, Massachusetts.

15 Appian Way.

April 14, 1900.

My dear Sir:

The Debates and Journals of the Australian Convention duly arrived in time to be of much service to me and to a class in federal government. I have turned them over to the Harvard College Library who will send you due acknowledgment.

The friends of good government throughout the world are rejoiced at the final accomplishment of your long task.

Sincerely yours,

Albert Bushnell Hart
Judge A. Inglis Clark.

24/0198