Adams House.
No. 553 Washington Street.

Boston, Oct. 4 1890

Dear Mr. Clark:-

I am very not to find you in, as I was delighted to receive your letter, and that of Mr. Deakin. I shall be at home tomorrow afternoon, between three and six, and if you can call then, or can let me know when to see you here, I will hope to be able to arrange for a further meeting. I enclose my card, with special directions for finding my house

Yours Very Truly
Josiah Royce.
