

Feb. 15: 1893

Dear Mr. Clark:

Miss Shaw, of the London Times, will, as I understood from her when leaving Sydney, a few weeks ago, reach Tasmania, in her Australasian journey of inquiry, about next week. May I ask you to further her visit to your colony in whatever ways may be possible? She 'paddles her own canoe' most dexterity & courage, but I venture, nevertheless, on my own account, to put in my little word in her behalf. You will find her a most accomplished & charming English woman, & a much more than merely clever journalist.

Her breadth & boldness of mental vision will delight you. And I am sure that her letters will help to reestablish these columns in the favour of educated England.

Faithfully yours
F. W. Ward