

CHIEF JUSTICE'S CHAMBERS,

ADELAIDE.

2nd June 1891My dear Mr Justice Gyles
Clark

Accept my hearty congratulations on your elevation to the Bench. You take with you the learning,
the judgment, and all

The usual qualities needed to maintain the prestige and usefulness of your high office: I trust you may live to administer it with honour to your self and to the advantage of your Colony for many years to come. I am
Dear

me any of your judgments on which you bestow special
praise

When you vent
me your Memorandum
for the Riparian question before the Federal Convention
I was in confidence

Communication upon
the subject will be premier and at that delicate stage of the discussion I do not feel at liberty to write fully about it
to any one else.

Enclosed is copy of a Telegram I had despatched to him before I received

CHIEF JUSTICE'S CHAMBERS,

ADELAIDE.

your Memorandum.

It was time that you should advise, relative what about the Chief Justice's ship! ~~It is~~ Dr Dodds (have it the Chief's Judgeship being left vacant?)

Pray recall me

very kind to your wife. You ~~will~~ leave doubtless heard of my my ~~secession~~ ~~from~~ the old Bachelors'
rank to join the Benedictine order
- part of the increase of my happiness. I shall not be able to take

Mr. Way to see my Jamaican friends next summer as I shall be administering
the property to the Trustees' absence

We shall carry
the Federal Bill
in full Australia

but what will happen
in New South Wales?

Believe me
ever every good wish

Yr faithful

W. H. C.

The Hon:

Mr Justice Hughes Clerk
