GOVERNMENT HOUSE, ADELAIDE.

4th Sept: 1902.

My dear Mr Justice Inglis Clark,

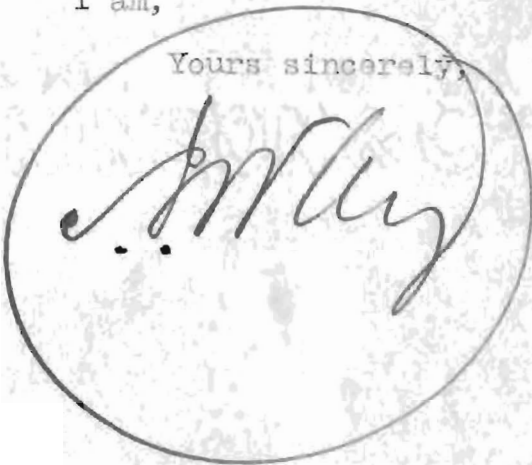

Thank you very much for your letter of the 29th August, and the copy of my telegram to Mr Kingston on the question of the Control of the Rivers of the Commonwealth. This is a summary of the results of my investigation into the Law of the subject, and I believe I sent Mr Kingston and you also a memorandum stating at length the processes by which I came to the conclusions expressed in this telegraphic summary. That is the paper which I want to find. Should you happen to come across it I am sure you will send it to me, but pray do not trouble to make a further search.

With kind regards to Mrs
Inglis Clark, in which Lady Way
unites,

I am,

Yours sincerely,

A. May

His Honor

Mr Justice Inglis Clark,

Hobart.
