

Tring

Oct 22. 1897

My dear Mr. Clark

Allow me to congratulate you on the manly and honorable stand you have taken in the present Parliamentary crisis.

I am delighted to find we have amongst us public men who prefer principle before expediency, and honor before gain.

You have sacrificed a high position, but in the interests of truth and honesty; and I am confident that both Parliament and the People will highly commend you for your action.

I am, Sincerely yours,
C. H. Jacoby