

c4/c391(3)

15 MACQUARIE PLACE,
SYDNEY.

March 1897

My dear Sir. This will introduce to you the Honble A. Inglis Clark M.C.C. - Attorney General Tasmania.
He is travelling through your country, chiefly for his health, his accompanier of his wife - As he will probably not know many people in your City, I commend him to your kind office -

Mr. Clark is a friend of mine of several years standing - he sat together in the Federal Convention of 1891 which did so much to to give definite shape to the aspirations of all true Australian Federalists - I need scarcely say that he was one of the men capable of any enterprise.

With kindest regards,

Yours very truly
W. McMillan

H. B. Hyde
120 Broadway
New York

Introducing Hon. A. J. Clark Clerk of Tennessee

H. B. Hyde Son - President - Equitable Life of U. S. A.

120 Broadway
New York

C4/C391 (3)

