

Lady, Franklin sends his kindest regards to D. P. Colver & knowing his love of fine art & especially portraits which has been devoted to her service, she hopes he will be able to send the accompanying Lady Franklin's painting which he will keep it as a remembrance - she kept it in his volume in a basket of the same name in the night.

My dear Mr. Calder

It is extremely kind of you to think of me again & I shall value your drawings for their own merit, the interest of their localities & still more so the evidence of your kind feelings. . . With best remembrance to Mr. Calder believe me most truly yours 3<sup>d</sup> Nov. 1843. Jane Franklin
