

Access: Open

ERIC JEFFREY, JOURNALIST

Eric Jeffrey (1890-1934), MA (Tas), MB. ChM. (Sydney) became a freelance journalist when, shortly after qualifying as a medical practitioner, illness left him crippled and unable to walk. This collection includes typescripts and manuscripts of articles by Dr. Jeffrey on a variety of subjects, medical, historical and biographical. Many were written under the pen name "Exul" for publication in The Bulletin .

J.1/

1

Articles by Dr. E. Jeffrey c. 1922-1923

Articles on a variety of subjects, medical, historical and biographical in typescript or manuscript, many under the pen name "Exul" for publication in The Bulletin including:

- An eye for an eye (13 pp 2 copies)
- Some aspects of heredity (8pp)
- The mental hygiene movement, parts 1 & 2 (10 pp)
- Reign of terror at Swansea Oct. 13 1922 (4 pp)
- The commercial awakening in Tasmania (6 pp)
- [Jokes] (2pp)
- Insulin (3 pp 2 copies)
- Recollections of a medical student (3 pp 2 copies)
- Reply to "The Deacon" on birth control; further notes on birth control
- Dermatobia (3 pp. 2 copies)
- An exploded superstition (10 pp)
- The Yarra mystery, Melbourne 8 March (5 pp)
- [X Ray] 18 Sept. 1922
- [Anecdotes] 18 sept. 1922
- A journey into the fourth dimension (9 pp 2 copies)
- The treatment of criminals (5 pp) and further notes
- [Anecdotes] 24 Aug., 3 & 13 Sept. 1922
- A bush tragedy (2 pp)
- Autobiography of a rheumatic (5 pp)
- Coal mine explosions (4 pp)
- Incomplete account of Royal Society of Tasmania's trip to mark the site of Tasman's landing (2 pp)
- Campaign against consumption (5 pp)
- Mediums and trances; on back: ms. The wages of virtue (5pp)
- How I came to take up writing by Exul (5 pp)
- The Tasmanian Aborigines
- Incomplete and miscellaneous loose pages
(bundle)

2

Poems ND

Poems and notebook of verse with some press cuttings.
(bundle containing ms. ts. and notebook)

- 3 Jackson lecture: "The Ancient Romans through medical eyes" 1934
Draft ts corrected (24 pp) and ts (63 pp.)

- 4 Jackson Lecture Correspondence 1934
Letters from Prof. R.L. Dunbabin, Sir R. Cilento and W.H. Hudspeth relating to the Jackson Lecture.
(8 letters)

- 5 Vocabularies 1905 - 1909
Notebooks containing vocabularies and notes relating to Aristophanes' "Knights", Theocritus' "Idylls", Vergil's Aeneid, Xenophon and Dumas' "La Tulipe Noir" made while a matric. student at Leslie House School, 1905, and while a classics student at the University of Tasmania under W.H. ~~Wilkins~~ Williams and R.L. Dunbabin. He graduated BA. in 1910 and MA in 1912.
(4 pocket notebooks)