

Donated to the University
Access: Open for research

HOBART TOWN COUNCIL - LIGHTING COMMITTEE

Miscellaneous papers, probably of Henry Propsting ? chairman of the Lighting Committee.

- H.9/1 Gas Co. and Town Council Agreement Mar. 1858
Hobart Town Gas Company's agreement to supply street lighting for Hobart Town Council, draft signed by Osmond H. Gilles, mayor, and George W. Whitcombe.
- 2 Upper Argyle Street petition Mar.-Apr. 1858
Petition from the ratepayers of Upper Argyle and Colville Streets about the state of the roads, footpath and lighting, referred to Lighting Committee - Henry Propsting.
- 3 Additional lighting report 3 May 1858
Report from the Gas Co. to the Town Clerk that 5 additional street lamps had been placed in Macquarie and Elboden Streets.
- 4 William Johnstone's petition 6 Sept. 1858
Petition from William Johnstone, Battery Point, on behalf of ratepayers, for gas light in Wellington Crescent; endorsed: "Committee do not recommend the light requested to be furnished, Henry Propsting".
- 5 Market lights 4 Oct. 1858
Recommendation of Committee that the Inspector of Markets light lamps at the end of the market after dark, H. Propsting.
- 6,7 Additional lighting 12 & 27 Oct. 1858
Report from Gas Light Office, John Laidlaw manager, to J. K. Winterbottom Town Clerk, that lamps in Fitzroy Crescent, Byron Street, Holbrook Place, Elizabeth Street, Colville Street, New Town boundary had been lighted.