

J JOSEPH BENSON WALKER
(1851-1877)

Joseph Benson Walker (1851-1877), son of G.W. Walker, gained the Associate of Arts degree and was apprenticed to Henry Hunter, architect, but died of consumption.

J CORRESPONDENCE RECEIVED

- 1 Sarah B. Walker to her son Joseph 1871 - 1872
- 2 James B. Walker to his brother Joseph 1867 - 1874
- 3 Robert Walker to his brother Joseph 1866 - 1867
- 4 Sarah T. Walker to her brother Joseph 1870 - 1874
- 5 Miscellaneous letters received 1860, 1870-1876
From: Esther Benson (1860), William Benson, Frank and Maggie Mather, Sarah S. Walker, Thomas B. Mather (cousin), Joseph Neave, Effie Davie, Henry Hunter: architect's business, Celia Hunter.

MISCELLANEOUS

- 6 Society of Friends 1872 - 1875
Papers relating to Joseph Walker's membership of the Society of Friends.
- 7 Miscellaneous
Phrenologist's character study of Walker by A.J. Hamilton c 1855; miscellaneous in memoriam cards.