

H SARAH THOMPSON WALKER
(1849-1905)

Sarah Thompson Walker (1849-1905), daughter of G.W. Walker, was a teacher and Vice-Principal of the Ladies College. She was called Sal, Sally, Sa or Sah by her family.

H CORRESPONDENCE

1 J.B. Walker to sister Sarah T. Walker 1870 - 1899

Addressed to Sally, Sal. or Sah about:- family: Mary to teach drawing at Friends' School (10 July 1888), etc.; Hobart: Chiniquy riots (1879), Orchestral Union, waterworks (1888,1898), typhoid (1891), bush fires (1898); Antarctic Expedition (Sept.-Dec. 1898); University: grant (3 Oct. 1898), Commemoration (19 Dec. 1898); Kennerley will case (1898); farewell to Fysh (Jan. 1899); meteor (14 Nov. 1898); tennis tournament, photography; travels: Melbourne (1883), New Zealand (1885, 1898), Zeehan (1890), Sydney (1894), St. Helens: fires (1895); friends.
(48 docs.)

17

2 Elizabeth Walker to sister Sarah 1866

From Ellinthorpe Hall: grandmamma, Headlam boys.

3 George B. Walker to sister Sarah 1865 - 1882

(5 docs.)

4 Joseph B. Walker to sister Sarah 1871

5 Mary A. Walker to sister Sarah 1873 - 1905

6 Isabella F. Walker 1877 - 1900

Walker

W9 /H-J

W9/

H

7 Ada L. Walker (nee Giblin, Mrs J. R. Walker) 1877, ND

8 Miscellaneous correspondence
Including some letters from her family.

Q 21

DIARIES

9 Diaries 1880, 1882
(1) (2)

MISCELLANEOUS

10 Miscellaneous Papers
Including: reference from Principal Ladies' College 1886; obituaries of J.B. Walker 1899; draft regulations for J.B. Walker prize.