

Walker

W9/G

JOHN RIDLEY WALKER

John Ridley Walker (1847-1915), called Ridley, was a son of George Washington Walker and Sarah Benson Mather. He worked as clerk to P.O. Fysh, merchant, and married Ada Caroline Giblin, and had three children, Ursula, Bernard & Joan

W9/G

1. Letter from sister Mary A. Walker 1889

2. Letters received 1868, 1869, 1871, 1874, 1900, 1891, 1905

From: Joseph J. Neave (1868), James Bonwick (1869), Joseph Andrews (1871), James B. Cotton (2. 1874) Bishop of Tasmania (25 May), William Reid Bell (9- 1-1900) re the death of JRW father, comments on Jamison Raid, Boer war, & President Kruger : Edward Lawrence of Launceston (17-11-1891) 2 letters re his debts, his wife's business & Bible Class at the YMCA

(10 docs.)

3. Cutting of letter to newspaper by J.R. Walker ND
Suggesting garden in Antill Street crescent.

4. Southern Cross Log vol. XIX No. 222 1913
Journal of Melanesian Mission including notes on Norfolk Island.

5. Mortgagees receipt – JR Walker to Mrs E Powell, land King Street Sandy Bay, dated July 1882

6. Memorandum of Transfer dated 22 March 1888, Charles Barclay to J.R.Walker
Land in the Parish of Queenborough