D  ELIZABETH ANN WALKER

Elizabeth Ann Walker (1843-1924), eldest daughter of G.W. Walker, known as Lizzie, "Buttons" or "Fatima", acted as housekeeper for her mother.

W9/D  CORRESPONDENCE

1  J.B. Walker to sister Elizabeth A. Walker  1885, 1894, 1897, 1898
   Addressed to Liz, Lizzie or "Buttons" from New Zealand (1885, 1898), Sydney (1894, 1897)
   (6 docs.)

2  Sarah T. Walker to sister E.A. Walker  1890, 1898
   From Melbourne (1890), London addressed to "Fatima" (1898).
   (2 docs.)

3  Mary A. Walker to sister E.A. Walker  1889-1892
   From U.K.: art school, travel in Britain (for photo of the Kerr's house "Dargavel, Bishopton, Renfrewshire, Scotland enclosed in letter dated 9 July 1890 see W9/Ph.124), addressed to Lizzie, "Fatima" or "Buttons" (1889-91); from France (1892)
   (22 docs.)

4  Mary A. Walker to sister E.A. Walker  1904 - 1905
   From UK. and France.
   (14 docs.)

E  GEORGE BENSON WALKER

George Benson Walker (1844-1882) second son of G.W. Walker

E
1  Letter from J. B. Walker  5 Jan. 1854

2  Phrenologist's character study by A.J.Hamilton  June 1855

F  ROBERT BENSON WALKER

Robert Benson Walker (1846-1894), second son of G.W.Walker, was a linen draper. He married Elizabeth Amos, daughter of James Amos of Cranbrook.

F1  "War" Essay ms. 17 Sept. 1860