A. MACONOCHIE: CONVICT SYSTEM

W10 Report on Convict Discipline by A. Maconochie 1837

Copy of A. Maconochie's report on convict discipline made by G.W.Walker and sent by him to Margaret Bragg, in a volume titled: "original Essays on convict discipline by Capt. Alexander Maconochie R.N. 1837 with some letters etc in further illustration of the same subject by James Backhouse and George W. Walker 1837".

Contents include Maconochie's report to Sir John Franklin, further observations, summary of papers addressed to British Government, Dr. Turnbull's objections to changes in convict discipline and observations by J. Backhouse and G.W. Walker and index. The volume is in G.W. Walker's handwriting.

At the front is a note on the origin of the manuscript and its presentation to Friends' School by descendants of Margaret Bragg, Roger Clark and John Bright Clark who visited the School in 1898.
