WALTER STONE & E. MORRIS MILLER CORRESPONDENCE

1948 - 1964

Edmund Morris Miller (1881-1964) scholar, Professor of Philosophy and Psychology and Librarian at the University of Tasmania, had extensive correspondence with Walter Stone (c 1905- ), publisher and book collector of Sydney and publisher of Biblionews, between 1948 and 1964 about book collecting and Australian literature. Letters include references to J.K. Morris (d. 1958), Henry Kendall and Rev. Thornton Reed's thesis on Kendall, Fred. Bloomfield, Roderick Quinn, C.J. Brennan, W.E. Fitzhenry (editor of The Bulletin), M. Gilmour and to The Tasmanian, Launceston's first newspaper (9). Morris Miller sometimes enclosed copies of his letters to others, including J.K. Morris (1951), and there are also letters from W.E. Fitzhenry of The Bulletin sent by Morris Miller to Stone for his files. Photocopies of these letters are also held in the National Library, Canberra.
