

Provenance: Purchased by Library in 1961, with two other early manuscript books (Cicero & Virgil) from B.M. Rosenthal of New York. See Uni. Gazette Dec. 1961.
Access: Rare + Special Collections

FRAGMENT OF MANUSCRIPT 13th or 14th Cent.

X6 Guido Ebroicensis, op Sermones de Tempore c 13th - 14th cent.

Fragment of vellum manuscript in Latin, being 4 folios (16 sides), 78r, 79v, 85r, 94r.

The manuscript was purchased in 1961 as an unidentified fragment. It has since been identified as leaves from a work by Guido Ebroicensis (or Guy of Evreux, Gui d'Evreux, Dominican). See Descriptive catalogue of Medieval and Renaissance Western Manuscripts in Australia by K.V. Sinclair (Sydney Uni. Press 1969) for further details.

The manuscripts were found inside the wooden covers of volumes of Robert Estienne's Dictionarium seu latine linguae thesaurus cum gallica fere interpretatione (Paris 1531) in the possession of Professor Hermann Suchier of Paris.

Latin, written in late 13th cent. or early 14th cent. French littera gothica textualis, decorated with some red underlining, initials blue with red penwork or red with blue penwork.

(vellum, 4 bifolios, leaves c 215 mm x 155 mm, torn at corners)

Morris, Rare BV 4240 .G8 12002