LEONARD RODWAY

Illuminated address presented by the Tasmanian Field Naturalists Club to Leonard Rodway C.M.G., expressing gratification at the honour conferred on him by the King, and also expressing the Club's thanks for his many services in the past as one of the founders, having also filled the presidential chair for several terms.

Signed by:	Chairman:	W.H.Clemes
	Vice-Chairman:	G.H.Hardy
	Secretary:	Clive E.Lord
	Treasurer:	R.A.Black
Members of Committee:		J.H.Gould, T.Thomson Flynn, C.Cole, S.H.Grueber

Address is decorated with water-colour drawings of Tasmanian plants.

The document is not dated but Leonard Rodway received the C.M.G. in 1917. Clive Lord and R.A.Black were secretary and treasurer together from 1915 to 1919. Leonard Rodway was Chairman from 1908 to 1910 and again in 1923.
