My dear Andrew,
Many thanks for yours of 7th inst. I hope you will look after the Commissionship for me. I have not heard from Dodds, of course. By the way, did you ever do anything with regard to the leader in The Argus of 28 Dec? ?

I have not been able to come to terms with Mr R H Smith. He offers me a Commission on business pending & future but that is not enough for me. I want my name to appear in the business, he does not see his way clear to offer me an interest in it. At the end of the month I will either leave him to go into business for myself, or may accept an offer of a partner-ship with David Gaunson. Mean-while I am very busy getting together a connection & if I could only ~~of~~ tide over the first 3 months, I have no doubt of my ultimate success.

You know, however, owing to the heavy burdens laid upon me, what a rest I run.
I hope you will advise me as far as you can. Will you send me a copy of Watson & Morgan's circular to suggest any additions that would be useful in a similar one by myself. I will write again as soon as I have anything definite to communicate.

Wilton sends his filial greetings. He likes his new situation very much & I think he has a good future before him. He has a good friend to look after him in the person of Whiting.

I liked your little effusion & I ~~think~~ thought when I read Tomlin's utterances that it would please you.

I am so busy that I can do no reading at all now.

That disconcerts me very much. I do not consider you have yet read answered the long letter I wrote you before Xmas, I look forward to rec^{ve} one written in the old strain before long.

As you say nothing about your health I hope it is permanently restored.

With love to Mr Clark & the children & to all the dear circle Believe me, dear friends, Ever affectionately thine

W. Hill
