Melbourne 13 June 1881

Dear Andrew,

Your parcel of 9th inst
only came ~~can~~ to hand at 10.30 am. this morning owing to my absence from office at Judge Chambers. There is a mail closing in half an hour & I have just time to drop you a line to say that your wishes shall be carried out at once & that I will write you fully

by next Mail which closes very shortly - I expect the delay re the probate has been ~~also~~ caused by the many changes in the name of the firm of <sup>Farnest</sup> Darwall - a common thing here. I will look up the members of the late firm &
push the matter forward with the <sup>most</sup> <sup>positive</sup> <sup>dispatch</sup> shall receive immediate attention.
With kindest regards
and in great haste
Believe me

Yours ever
Wm
Hughes Esq
