

THE ROYAL SOCIETY OF TASMANIA

PAPERS AND PROCEEDINGS, 1931.

CONTENTS.

	Page
Tasmanian Collembola of the Family Sminthuridæ (Globular Springtails). By H. Womersley, A.L.S., F.E.S.	1
Aboriginal Rock-Carvings on the North-West Coast of Tasmania. By A. L. Meston, M.A.	12
Studies in Tasmanian Spiders. Part V. (The Oonopidæ.) By V. V. Hickman, B.A., B.Sc.	20
Notes on the Fossil Spores in an Oil-Shale from Tasmania. By T. C. N. Singh	32
On the Structure of the Respiratory Organs of the Terrestrial Isopoda. By E. E. Unwin	37
A Contribution to the Orchidology of Tasmania. By R. S. Rogers, M.A., M.D., F.L.S.	105
Hymenophyllum minimum , A. Rich. By L. Rodway, C.M.G.	107
The Extinct Tasmanian Emu. By H. H. Scott	108
On the Occurrence in Tasmania of Hydrophis ornatus , variety ocellatus ; with a Note on Pelamis platurus (= Hydrus platurus). By E. O. G. Scott	111
Preliminary Note on the Supposed Aboriginal Rock-Carvings at Mersey Bluff, Devonport. By E. O. G. Scott	112
Annual Report—
Officers	130
Report	131
Branch Report	133
Accounts	134
Index	136