

NOTICE OF A CHANGE IN THE LOCATION OF PARATYPE SPECIMENS OF ONISCOIDEA (CRUSTACEA, ISOPODA)

(From Miss ALISON GREEN, now of Department of Zoology, University of Otago, Dunedin, N.Z.)

Notice is given that a paratype male and a paratype female specimen of each of the species of Oniscoidea listed below, which were formerly lodged in the Department of Zoology, the University of Tasmania, Hobart, have now been transferred to the Tasmanian Museum, Hobart.

Styloniscus maculosus—Green, 1961.
Styloniscus squarrosus—Green, 1961.
Plymophiloscia thomsoni—Green, 1961.
Plymophiloscia tasmaniensis—Green, 1961.
Plymophiloscia notleyensis—Green, 1961.
Plymophiloscia ulverstonensis—Green, 1961.

Cubaris hickmani—Green, 1961.
Cubaris tasmaniensis—Green, 1961.
Cubaris sulcifrons—Green, 1961.
Cubaris tamerensis—Green, 1961.
Echinodillo cavaticus—Green, 1963.

REFERENCES

- GREEN, A. J. A., 1961.—A study of Tasmanian Oniscoidea (Crustacea: Isopoda). Aust. J. Zool. 9, 2: 258-365.
———, 1963.—A new species of Echinodillo (Isopoda, Oniscoidea, Armadillidae) from Flinders Island, Tasmania. Pap. Proc. Roy. Soc. Tasm. 97: 77-80.

