

SKETCH MAP GENERAL GEOLOGICAL FEATURES OF TASMANIA

Scale 15 miles to an inch

REFERENCE

I. Tertiary Rocks

Basalt
Granite (Dundas)
Gneiss, Syenite and Gabbro Dykes

Crystalline and metamorphic rocks - Anorthite, quartzite, and various kinds of Archaean Gneiss and Schistose and Silurian granites

II. Stratioid Rocks

Upper and lower Devonian including the celebrated Permian, Mesozoic, and Tertiary sandstone and limestone of the Tasmanian coast

TERTIARY AND POST TERTIARY

Recent and Pleistocene deposits
Alluvium
Clay
Sand
Gravel
Lignite
Coal

Geological features described in I. & II. are taken from official maps of the Tasmanian Government Geological Survey and are based on the work of J. M. Johnston and C. P. Mearns.