

EDWARD SWARBRECK HALL

MEDICAL SCIENTIST AND SOCIAL
REFORMER IN COLONIAL TASMANIA

by

Elsie Frances Haynes B.A., Dip. Soc. Sc.

submitted in fulfilment of the requirements for the degree of

Master of Arts

UNIVERSITY OF TASMANIA

HOBART

December, 1976

E. F. Haynes

EDWARD SWARBRECK HALL. M.R.C.S.

"WHATEVER BETIDE, FOR THE RIGHT !"

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction			iii
Acknowledgements			v
Abbreviations			vi
Section One		The Convict Régime 1834-53
Chapter 1	Arrival in Hobart Town		1
2	Hobart Town		8
3	The Medical Climate		18
4	Brighton		24
5	The Probation System		34
6	The Convict Doctor		49
	Bothwell	49
	Westbury	84
	Jerusalem	91
	Oatlands	92
	Ross	97
	Saltwater River	106
Section Two		The Transition Period 1854-59
Chapter 7	Hobart Town Again		117
8	The General Colonial Hospital		126
9	1855		136
10	Public Health		158
11	Vital Statistics		172
12	Conflict		181
13	Health Reports		195
14	The Sanitarium for India Affair		203
15	The Orphan Schools		210
Section Three		The New Colonial Society 1860-63
Chapter 16	Medical Science		223
17	Confrontation		239
18	Social Ideology		254
19	Colonial Promotion		262

Section Four	Colonial Officer	1863-81	279
Chapter 20	Vaccination		280
21	Philanthropy		296
22	Health Officer		315
Appendices			328
	The Hall Family		329
	Illuminated Address		330
	Health Report (An example)		332
Bibliography			337

