

27th May 1836

My dear Jane,

I am happy to hear you are about to return home I have written to John to day and shall be happy to go over for you or to meet you on the roads just as it may be arranged among you Tell the Friends I shall never forgive them if a ship without staying a day or two with us. Write soon to Mr. Woods. Should you go to the Pythee Bay Convent as very affectionately to Ann & Mat Yours affectionately
A Clark
