

Wednesday Eve

My dear Jane,

I am happy to inform you that the boys are quite well and happy. — We went to the Cycle on Saturday & returned here on Tuesday that is yesterday we might have dined at every house in the Cycle if we had thought proper the people were exceedingly civil however, we only at Mr. Reid's & Dr. Shurlands notwithstanding the heat of the weather & their frequent exposure to it, Charly's eye has got quite well or so nearly so that I can perceive nothing the matter with it, a little relaxation does them good. Edward desires me to say that they are in a hurry to return; and I am very well satisfied with their behaviour. -

~~The~~ ~~Shag~~ fit a Marwille.

~~The~~ Charles has written a line to his Mama & forgot to send his love to his Papa which both he & Edward desire me to do.

I will send the pair by the first opportunity but if they do not arrive in time you must purchase perhaps you can get some finer Johns.
