

My dear Madam

My Wife would feel much relieved if you could come to us for a few days, in our distress a friends conversation and company would be a great relief I beg you to thank you Sir for his very great kindness in going part of the way with me on my melancholy journey hence on muddy night -

I am dear Madam
your truly

J. H. Hume

M Wood
Thurs