My dear Sir

29 July 1851

I received your letter this morning As I have no one that will come forward to assist me - I have been the whole of this day occupied in writing to my creditors - which letters I have sent by horse - on their reply depends whether I shall declare myself insolvent - having a moderate dividend to pay - I do not expect to be so much favored as Mr. Mearns - who has paid nothing yet is reestablished in his old position as I am told - I am my dear Sir

I Leake Esq

Yours truly

W Wood

I always said that Mr. Cameron had £1300 and £200 security - but as it would seem that do not adhere to the truth - I will make no more statements to obtain any ones favor. I also said that I did not know to what extent the mortgage or judgement gave him power - whether over the whole of my land or only part - or whether it was an mortgage or bond of judgement - because I trust implicitly to Mr. Cameron
