

Hawkridge 26 Feby 1844

Dear Sir

I send the promissory note as required by you and will write to you again by the next post – at present I can only repeat what I have already said that in case of necessity my property if sold would never pay my debts but that by indulgence shown to me I shall be able to then [?] without ruining my family.

I am my Dear Sir
Your Obed Servant
W Wood

Tfer Promy Note
Returned
J Leake

26 Feby 1844
Cap Wood

Mr Leake Esq
Rosedale