

Hawkridge 22 Apr 44

My dear Sir

My father advises [?] me to inform you that he has been too unwell to write to you but expects to be able to do so in a few days. . he's a little better than he was when I saw you at Campbell Town but his throat is still so sore that he cannot swallow any thing but a liquid with best respects to Mrs Leake and family I remain

Yours truly
Louis Wood

Mr Leake Esq
