My dear Sir

Immediately after I had sent my letter to Perth I was informed that Mr Manley had made himself insolvent which is an addition to my misfortunes that must bring me down altogether unless I receive the assistance I required in a former letter –

It was very wrong in him to give me no notice of his intention. In reply to my letter to Mr Manley of same purpose [?] as the one to you he says that any arrangement I can make he will agree to if possible.

I am dear Sir

Yours truly

W Wood
