

My dear Sir

I enclose Mr. Swann's letter to me - which seems as if he would apst. instead of injuring me by pressing for his money, just now - he has sent me another bill for the £200 at 3 months to take up the £200 endorsed by you - on Thursday I will send you and to him as full an account of my affairs as I can. I feel much grateful for the considerate and kind manner in which you have acted

Yours truly

Sir

I have received yours of the 12th Inst^s and feel very great regret to learn from it the difficulties of your present position. Not being on the spot and having only a limited knowledge of your affairs I do not feel competent to advise upon them, I can only say that I by no means intend to be the first to press or distress you, If you cannot take up the Bills you will most likely be able very shortly to pay some part of them, relying on which I shall direct that they be allowed to stand over for the present.
