My dear Sir

You have probably noticed Mr. Parker's name in the list of passengers by the last trip of the Shamrock, & as Deputy Secretary during his absence, I owe you some apology for not earlier acknowledging your letter of the 16th, enclosing one for your son Robert, which I forwarded per Misses, as you directed -

Mr. Parker left directions

L.1/B.479

for the work Bags (if you should write for them) to be forwarded - in any way you might direct - you appear from your letter to suppose they are sent, so I presume there has been some misunderstanding -

If you wish for them, will you be kind enough to say how they are to be sent, or how many - each ball contains eight.

I have had very pleasing accounts from Mr. Bekken since his arrival at Melbourne, he had a very quiet & pleasant passage across the Straits -

I trust Mr. Bekken's health is improved since you last mentioned it, I will send kind regards to her & your daughter

I am

My dear Sir

Yours sincerely

Georgiana Bekken.
