Srecho June 31 - 1844

My dear Mr Leake

We are in receipt of yr favor of the 28th and he offered me an enter into yr feelings in some measure as it regards yr annoyances & vexations with regard to yr purchases - see how nicely I escape all such things - not having the means to purchase!!

- But what poor Mrs Leake we are truly sorry she is so unwell - and as she contemplates a change of air for her benefit we all think that Srecho is just the place she should remove to. - would you take Mrs L to Lanneston, to that place where Astrucians say "you may cut the Fog with a knife" and that for a person laboring under "nervous debility" no - no do not think of such a plan. Bring her down here - and we will make her as comfortable as our little place will enable us - it will be a real change, and remind her of former things - she will get braced and strengthened & hope and enjoy more than ever the Man at Soda we have a funny little berth for her - and if you should accompany her, Mr Pike will widen the Bed so that you shall not tumble out - now do make up yr mind at once, and say how, and when its to be, beside all the benefits arising from this change "D.V" Mr G & Mr L will enjoy such others Company, and we wish to have the pleasure of saying to any ~~of our~~ hope to hear by next post that she is on the wing - the Ladies are so glad the place for Ferrons folks - farewell till we see you both - I am desired by my friends circle to be remembered to you all my kindest

And my dear Sir
 Yrs. dear truly
 J. M. W.

I am dear Sir
