

My dear Jane

I am happy to say that Baby's bonnet has at last reached its destination & I thank you for it as well as the blue band.

The Archdeacon called this morning with Mr & Mrs Davis, he seems an agreeable gentlemanly man, I was not at church on Sunday to hear his preach, but Weston was much pleased with his discourse I have had worse cold lately than I have had since I have been on this side the Island consequently have not been out.

I expect to get your parcel from Mr Brothers this week. Colonel Arthur has not been in this district yet. - I want you to tell me if there is any thing new in the cut of the chape W - brought me home lately a Claret Coloured Moore's which I shall make for the winter; I should like if it would not be very expensive to have a silk bonnet for the winter perhaps you could get it made and sent over, or perhaps you could get one ready made. -

Mr Martin wrote to Weston the day you last wrote on; both letters were mislaid and did not reach till Saturday, Mr M - wished an answer to his to be left at Lopez Inn but as he was to start so soon from Hobart Town there was no time chance of a letter being of any use. We were expecting him at 11th on Saturday night or Sunday morning.
