My Dear Sir

Since I

wrote to you I have received a package

of books by the

Regule brought

There is a copy of

Eulcher's General

Manuscript. As it is a much more expensive book -

Yours

I was led to believe I now wish to you
to say that it will be unnecessary for you to send your copy as I previously requested -

If however you are anxious to dispose of it on any of the others you mentioned
being kind, you have only to let me know, & I will.

endeavour to find a purchaser -
as I said, they Society's funds are as yet much too
low to put us
in working money
in books though I admit it is a great improvement.

Yours -

Wm. Lloyd Garrison
with the usual
compliments

Brother J. Winson

your kind letter
Fred. M. Miller
