IN MEMORIAM.

LAFAYETTE LAFAYETTE.

The following record of the late beloved Lafayette is drawn from the печальный Memorial of him, given by General Pershing, M.A. and M.D., in his letter to the was printed in the New York Times for November 30th, 1935, and is set forth in the following words:

"Lafayette Lafayette, who died on the 10th of May, 1935, was the last remaining descendant of the great Lafayette. He was born on the 29th of January, 1825, in New York City, the son of General Lafayette and his wife, Margaret. He was educated at the United States Military Academy, West Point, New York, and was commissioned a second lieutenant in the United States Army. He served in the Mexican War and was promoted to lieutenant in 1847. Lafayette Lafayette was a man of great courage and valor, and was known for his bravery in battle. He was a member of the House of Representatives from New York in 1853, and was successively promoted to the rank of colonel, brigadier general, and major general in the United States Army. Lafayette Lafayette was a man of great noble character and was loved and respected by all who knew him. He is remembered as a true friend to the country and a true soldier. The people of the United States will long remember the great Lafayette Lafayette, who has gone to his reward, and may his memory be a benediction to all
