

Phrenological Estimate of disposition
& Talents of George Lordyce Story

This Gentleman has great Common Sense, and is very remarkable for his Knowledge and Judgement concerning Places, and Sizes, and Forces. His reflective powers are very active. His Will is strong. He has considerable Self Esteem and a very active and ingenious mind & imagination. Has good Sense of Form, is rather fond of gain, but not sufficiently so to render him selfish. Benevolence is active. He is independent & could not act meanly. Is good at Calculations. Is practically rather than naturally opposive. He loves a change.

but has much practised perseverance
Is proportionately secretive and Cautious. Is very effective.
