

Adm'r John 28th August 1874

Dear Sir

Joseph Wm Storey, Estate

We received on Tuesday last your letter announcing the death of Mrs Storey -

- 1 With respect to the Furniture or rather what is left of it your course is quite clear - either have it sold by Auction or if Mrs Heathorn wishes to retain it she can send you an inventory with valuation of some competent Person - If Mrs Storey has left no will it will be necessary to consider what should be done with the Proceeds - You can have no claim to the Furniture as Executors of J. W. Storey except as Trustee for the deceased Lady's Representatives.
- 2 The 18 Day income is in the same position as the furniture -
- 3 The two Daughters will doubtless divide their Father's Estate between them but you must now try to sell the Real Estate in order to test the question, whether there is any thing for the Residuary bequeathed Property will sell well just now and it is possible the next probable that you may realize more than sufficient to pay the Mortgage and the £6000 to which the Daughters are entitled —

Yours faithfully
Richard W. H. H. H.
