

Flinders and adjacent islands, 480,000 acres which were leased to him for 10 years at £30 p.a. He went to reside on Flinders in 1849, where he remained until 1862. He afterwards lived at Westbury and George Town. He died at Deloraine on 1st Sept., 1885, the Senior Magistrate in Tasmania. He was married twice:
1st: a daughter of Caleb Whitefoord,
2nd: the widow of Joseph Bonney of Wood Hall, Perth.

STIEGLITZ, Francis Walter von:

4th son of Heinrich Ludwig von Stieglitz, he arrived in V.D.L. in 1829.

26th Sept. 1843 was made a J.P., in 1848 was living at Lewis Hill from 1859-1868, was living at Ormley, Fingal. Appointed a Coroner on 2nd Dec, 1864, and died at Launceston 14th Apr., 1889.

STIEGLITZ, Henry Lewis von:

2nd son of H.L. von Stieglitz, born on 13th Jan., 1808. He married Helen, daughter of Adam Amos of Glen Gala, by whom he had 5 sons and 4 daughters. (date of marriage, 9th Dec. 1834)

In 1844 he was living at Rosemount, St Pauls ("No Where Else") and in 1853 at Green Lawn. On 2nd Aug. 1860 he was appointed a J.P., and he died in 1876, aged 68 years. His wife Helen died in 1890 aged 78 years.

STORY, George Fordyce:

Born 4th June 1800, the only son of George Story of the Preaching House, Perth, Scotland; he was born in London. In 1821, he was apprenticed to George French, M.D., Professor of Chemistry, Marischal College, Aberdeen. He gained his M.A. and in 1824 took the degree of M.D. at the University of Edinburgh. He then started in practice in London. On 19th Dec., 1828, he arrived in Hobart Town as surgeon of the ship Mary, after a rough passage, in the course of which the ship was dismasted. He decided to settle in V.D.L. so resigned his position. In April 1829, he was appointed to the post of District Assistant Surgeon at Great Swan Port and went to live at Waterloo Point. As this position only carried the salary of 3/- per day and allowances he was offered the position of Storekeeper which he accepted, In 1834 he resigned his position as Storekeeper, and ~~1834~~ went to make his home with Francis Cotton and family at Kelvedon. During the period 1832 - 1837, Messrs Backhouse and Walker were frequent visitors to Kelvedon and the Doctor became a member of the Society of Friends. On 3rd Dec., 1841, he resigned his post as D.A.S., but was re-appointed on 28th June 1842, but resigned again on 31st March 1844, when he accepted the position of Secretary to the Royal Society and Curator of the Society's Botanical Gardens, In Nov. 1845, he gave up this work, and returned to his medical work at Great Swan Port. In 1848, owing to the influx of medical men from N.S.W., transferred ~~fr~~ to V.D.L., many of the local D.A.S.'s services were dispensed with and Dr. Story was one of those whose services were terminated. In 1855, he was appointed Returning Officer for the Electoral Division of Glamorgan, holding that position until 1877, when his duties were attached to those of Warden. In 1869 he was holding a seat on the Lisdillon School Board. From 1871 to 1874 he was Councillor of the Municipality. After this date, gradually the increasing failure of his eyesight caused him to abandon many of his activities, and he died at Kelvedon on 7th June 1885 at the age of 86 years.

STUART, Andrew Thomas:

Born 1814, son of the Hon. Andrew Godfrey Stuart. He married Mary Gilmour, by whom he had 4 sons and 2 daughters. In 1847, he was Superintendent at Rocky Hills. From 1849 to 1858, he was Superintendent at Saltwater River and other stations on Tasman's Peninsula. Later he lived at Sandy Bay, where he died in 1894.

TALBOT, William, of Malahide, Fingal:

Born in was the 6th son of Baroness Talbot de Malahide in Ireland and G Furnival in England. He arrived in V.D.L. in the ship Caroline from Sydney in June 1821, carrying a location order from Governor Macquarie for 2,000 acres of land. The land he selected at Great Swan Port, (Old Belmont) unfortunately e was in the middle of the land which had been selected a few weeks earlier by George Meredith. This was the beginning of the famous Meredith-Talbot land dispute which engaged the attention of the V.D.L. and N.S.W. Governkents for over 4 years. It was eventually settled by the Government taking over the land which Talbot had selected and paying him for his improvements at a valuation and then issuing him with another location order.

After losing Belmont, Talbot shipped his belongings and stock by boat up the East Coast to Falmouth, from where he moved westwards to St Pauls Plains, where he selected the land which now forms the estate of Malahide.

He died at Malahide on 22nd Dec., 1845, and is buried at Fingal. His obituary notice reads "a man of the first rank, not more distinguished by noble lineage than by individual high and honorable principles..." He possessed an innate love of justice.

TEUSH, Dr Frederick Evan:

1828 took the degree of L.S.A., London.

Had just arrived in the Colony when, on 19th Oct., 1841, he was appointed as Medical Officer at the Penal Station at Rocky Hills. On 2nd March 1846, was made a J.P.P and transferred to Maria Island. Later in that year he was moved to Port Cygnet Probation Station, and in 1848 he left the srvice, and commenced the practice of his profession at Bothwell. In 1857 he moved to Oatlands, where he died in 1869.

THOMSON, William Fiennes:

28th Dec., 1839, arrived in the colony in the ship Charlotte from Leith.

1852, B.A. Oxon.

22nd Jan., 1856 was headmaster of Swansea Grammar School.

In 1860 was found dead in his home, a cottage near to Mayfield.

TURNER, William:

Major, 50th Regt.

Arrived in V.D.L.

During the time of his Lieutenancy and Captaincy he supervised the building of the bridge over the Macquarie River at Ross, and at the time the bridge was completed, 1836, was A.P.M. at Ross.