

upon my receipt the enclosed paper for £3.10

WELLINGTON BRIDGE,

Hobart Town,

Manufactory
and
Wholesale Warehouse,
12 Macquarie-street.

4 Feb^y 1876

Dr. Story
Kelvidan

Dear Sir -

The Bible selected for you by Dr. Cotton was the one advertised in our Intelligencer for August at the English published price of £3-10-0.
The fine paper edition, ^{bound} in best Morocco -

The price of this edition had previously been £4-5-0 but our London Agent having purchased largely on favorable terms, we

C7/179

If you only charge ^{me} £3.10 for the Bond Paper & duty
In your X^o bill you deduct the bond £3.10 the other £3.10 further I bought the bond the other was advertised at £3.

Wine suitable to offer Cipis at £3-10-0

As an acknowledgment
Sincerely
Yours
J. Macdonald

Belvedere 5/3/74

Rev. J. W. Wilson

I received your letter of the 4th. I have explained the reason why you have charged £3.10. for the Bible for me select for me

I am not at all convinced that I should pay the £3.10 for the
The one on bond paper is a superior book to that ~~you~~ ^{you} charged £3.10 for select by JOC and in your Christmas Catalogue the same paper is advertised at £3.10 the other at £3. I think the reference to that Catalogue ought to set the matter to rights, it convinced me that I ought to be charged £3. only

And as these 2 Bibles are so advertised in the Year Catalogue whatever was said in the August Intelligence could have no bearing upon