Deposited by his widow Mrs Olive Burn 1970

PROFESSOR ALAN BURN

Alan Burn (1889 - 1959) BE, (Syd.), M Sc. (Tas.), LLD(Lond.), M.I.E. (Aust.) was Professor of Engineering 1919 - 1955, Vice-Chancellor 1945 - 1949 and Acting V.C. April to June 1953. See also UT 467, UT 101.

PAPERS, LECTURES, REPORTS ETC.

UT 35/

1 Tasmanian State Committee on Pump Test Code Correspondence and Report. 1928

2 Lecture Notes - University of Tasmania c. 1906 - 16

1 Surveying
2 Bridge building
3 Stresses
4 Engineering Drawing and Design
5 Mechanical Engineering II and III
6 Pumps and lenses
7 Civil Engineering
8 Notebook of mathematical equations and engineering essay on columns

3 The Theory of Columns and Methods of Design 1922
Reprint from Transactions of I.E. Aust., Paper 6, Vol 111 (2 copies)

4 4/1 Proceedings of Conference of Australian Universities. 1922, 1928, 1930, 1932, 1934

4/2 Proceedings of Australian Universities Standing Advisory Committee. (2 copies). 1929

4/3 Proceedings of Australian Vice Chancellor's Committee. 1935

5 Address delivered at University Commemorations 1933 by Sir E. Lewis, Chancellor 1924 - 1933 Pub. by University of Tasmania. Personal copy presented to Alan Burn by the Author.
MISCELLANEOUS

6 Institution of Engineers of Australia:
   6/1 Constitution. Sydney 1919
   6/2 Tasmanian Division. Rules and By-Laws Hobart. 1921
   6/3 Memorandum and Articles of Association Sydney. 1926

6/6 Copy of paper by D. H. Harvey "Operation & Protection of Telephone Lines used in Power Distribution". n.d.

7 Collection of lantern and kodachrome slides illustrating machinery for hydro-electric installations. n.d.