

KENNETH MCKENZIE DALLAS

Lecturer Economics 1933 - 1967 (Acting Professor 1945-7, Senior Lecturer from 1951) except for 1941-44 when on active service.

K.M. Dallas (1902-) was educated at Launceston High School (1916-1920) and at the University of Tasmania and the Philip Smith Teachers Training College as a bonded student, 1921-27 (ie 1921 full time, the remainder while teaching). He studied economics under Douglas Copland, B. Bridgen and D.G. McDougall (commercial law) and graduated B.Com in 1928. He was appointed to Launceston High School in 1925 and started a W.E.A. branch. In 1930 he was appointed W.E.A. tutor in Devonport.

"My life in the University or the University in my life" 1978

Notes written as background material for a video taped interview with John Roberts of the A.B.C. 4 Dec. 1978.
(4 pp. ms. photocopy)